5 ideas to create rapport with your angel guides

1. Create a special place in your home to sit with your angels. The energy will build in this area and be a support to your goals.

2. Have a clear heart and mind and ask for ideas to

I had a NDE (Near Death Experience) three days before I turned 21. That is interesting timing. The number 21 breaks down to $2+1=3$. the number three represents among many things life, death and rebirth. Which was the case for me.

It was the most traumatic thing that every happened to me. One minute I was on top of the world. Healthy, loved my career and life. The next thing I knew I was hovering between this world and the next.

Any how this was my turning point. When I was sent back to finish what I came here to do. I started being aware of other spirits that were a live but not focused in a physical body.

They had messages for those of us here in a physical body. I am the go between. From my heart I do my best to relay what your loved ones in the spirit world want to tell you. I relay the inspiration and ideas from your guides, teachers and angels.

It is my way of touching the world with beauty. To help us understand that life goes on after the breath leaves the body.

Walk in Beauty
MarVeena-Ghost Queen

open your heart to higher levels of love from your angels, the Holy Spirit and loved ones here on this plane.

3. Seek out in your heart, mind or body any old thoughts, anger issues or sadness from the past and begin the process of letting it go. Allow the angels to help you transform the negative energy to love.

4. Bring in some beautiful angel decorations to fill the presence of the room with those images. This helps encourage the angels to be a stronger presence in your life

5. Light some high vibrational incense to create a soothing atmosphere. Rose and Patchouli are my favorites.

Create a plan of action and intend help from your angels to get it off and running.

Read as much as you can find, the libraries are full of information. Half price books is a great resource too! The more that you talk to, meditate with and be aware of your angels the more that they will communicate with you.

Down home on the ranch:

The foals are getting bigger and stronger. My baby colt got caught in the wire last week, I almost lost my pinky finger trying to get him out of it. Julio got us both out. So Baby boy keeps a foot, I keep my finger and Julio got some BBQ ribs for supper!

June looks like a busy month, lots of people requesting private family circles. Which I love to do!

Come to see us soon!
