Good ideas to help you get the best reading

1. I recommend you book your reading a few days in advance. Write a list of the people in spirit you would like to hear from in your reading and put it under your pillow. This is called a letter to spirit or billet.
2. Meditate with your guides and ask them to help your loved ones, friends, even animals in spirit to

MarVeena's Bio

I had a NDE (Near Death Experience) three days before I turned 21. That is interesting timing. The number 21 breaks down to 2+1=3. the number three represents among many things life, death and rebirth. Which was the case for me.

It was the most traumatic thing that ever happened to me. One minute I was on top of the world. Healthy, loved communicate to you. Send them your questions and ask them to give you a message with some evidence.

3. If you have issues with someone in spirit that comes in that you didn't invite try your best to forgive them! If you can't do that, tell the medium you know who they are but don't wish to talk to them now.

4. If you are doing your reading by phone have the original billet with you. This helps bring the energy to the session. Have some paper handy or record the reading if it is ok.

5. Don't volunteer too much info to the medium. It isn't good to tell them the name of who you want to talk to. This way if the spirit comes in with their name it is better validation to you!

6. The more you can keep your heart open and be positive and allowing the easier the medium can work with you and tap into your energy, bring in the loved ones that you want to hear from.

7. Ask your angel guides and spirit guides to bring some insight about your path and what you could be doing to help you stay in the sweet spot of your souls path.

Down home on the ranch:

my career and life. The next thing I knew I was hovering between this world and the next.

Any how this was my turning point. When I was sent back to finish what I came here to do.

I started being aware of other spirits that were a live but not focused in a physical body.

They had messages for those of us here in a physical body. I am the go between. From my heart I do my best to relay what your loved ones in the spirit world want to tell you. I relay the inspiration and ideas from your guides, teachers and angels.

It is my way of touching the world with beauty. To help us understand that life goes on after the breath leaves the body.

My sweet little colt has a bad infection from his adventure through the fence. If you have time send the little colt(Valid Assult) some love, reiki and prayers.

We got to ride the motorcycle this weekend a lot with my brother and his wife. Had a blast!

June looks like a busy month, lots of people requesting private family circles. Which I love to do!

Come to see us soon!

Blessings
